

Higher Level Teaching Assistant (HLTA) Status

HLTA status is a recognised progression route for school support staff that can make a real difference to schools and pupils.

Apply today for our Autumn 2022 intake
– limited places available

- Offered nationally
- Online facilitated training, or face-to-face options available
- Quality assured through rigorous national standards
- Free access to the TA Toolkits, part of our CPD modules (The School Suite)

Best Practice Network has prepared and assessed more than 10,000 High Level Teaching Assistants (HLTAs) and is proud to work with TAs and schools on a national basis.

Winner: 'Education
Company of the Year' at the 2020 Bett Awards

Why HLTA?

91%

of senior leadership identified positive impacts on pupil performance from having an HLTA

Pupil benefits

– supports continuity and consistency to individuals, groups and classes

Areas of expertise

– enables specialist areas to be delivered effectively

HLTA status

– provides confidence, capability and credibility to carry out advanced roles in teaching and learning

What's included?

- 2 days of live group facilitation with tutor and peers
- Independent online course study
- Independent writing of tasks and creation of e-portfolio
- 1.5 hour assessment (interviews with candidate, teacher and Headteacher)

At a glance

Study method:
Face-to-face or online

Duration: 3–4 months from day 1 to assessment

The School
Suite

Special offer

Colleagues will receive 12 months free access to the 'TA Toolkit' from our online CPD library – The School Suite.

This excellent resource contains 6 CPD modules, each with 6 hours of practical content and resources.

Valued at £200

Learn more

+44 (0) 117 920 9200
hlta@bestpracticenet.co.uk bestpracticenet.co.uk/hlta

