

Meet your course facilitators ...

Rachel Martin

Outreach Advisory Teacher for Southampton Inclusion Partnership

Over the last eight years, in her role as Outreach Advisory Teacher for Southampton Inclusion Partnership, Rachel has supported schools across the city with strategic improvement for SEND, as well as developing provision for individual pupils with complex needs. She is an experienced teacher, trainer and facilitator, delivering a range of training courses for senior leaders, experienced teachers and for those undertaking initial teacher training. As an accredited regional trainer for the Engagement Model, Rachel has played a key role in developing teachers' understanding of the areas of engagement and the function of the framework as an assessment tool. Rachel is an accredited SENCo with experience of leading SEND in both primary and secondary school settings.

Stuart Bonney

Strategic Lead (SEND & Behaviour) - Hamwic Education Trust

Stuart has 18 years of experience supporting SEND pupils both in specialist and mainstream settings. He started his career at Vermont School in Southampton, before becoming an Outreach Advisory Teacher and gaining an SLE for SEND & Behaviour through Southampton Inclusion Partnership.

Four years ago, Stuart took on the role of Strategic Lead for SEND & Behaviour at Hamwic Education Trust. He leads the Trusts' SENDCo Network and works to support and develop inclusive practices across the Trust's 34 schools.